Statement of intent

St. Mary's College believes that in order to facilitate teaching and learning, acceptable behaviour must be displayed in all aspects of school life.

We are committed to:

- Promoting desired behaviour.
- Promoting self-esteem, self-discipline, proper regard for authority and positive relationships based on mutual respect.
- Ensuring equality and fairness of treatment for all.
- Encouraging and rewarding good behaviour.
- Challenging and disciplining bad behaviour.
- Providing a safe environment; free from disruption, violence, discrimination, bullying and any form of harassment.
- Encouraging a positive relationship between the school and parents to develop.
- Developing relationships with our pupils which ensure early intervention is possible.
- A shared approach which involves pupils in the implementation of the school's policy and associated procedures.
- Promoting a culture of praise and encouragement in which all pupils can achieve.

Appendix 1

COLLEGE RULES

It is impossible to set down rules for all circumstances and situations. The overriding rule is: do whatever is responsible, honest, safe, sensible, and respectful of others.

Signing the Form of Agreement signifies parental acceptance of School Rules as from time to time amended.

SCHOOL DAY

1. The day begins with the 8.40 a.m. bell, by which time all pupils should be at the assembly and registration point. Pupils are not permitted into classrooms before 8.40 a.m. In the event of wet weather years 7-11 wait in the Dining Room.
2. The main door of the school is reserved for Staff and Sixth Formers
3. Pupils not present at their registration points by 8.45 a.m. are considered late. Any pupil who arrives after the morning registration period (that is 9.10a.m. or later) must report to the Main Office, giving name, form and reason for lateness and sign the Late Book.
4. No pupil is to leave the premises earlier than the appointed time without the permission of the Principal, Vice Principal, or a Senior Teacher. Only members of the Sixth Formers are allowed to leave school premises at lunchtime.
5. Medical and dental appointments should be arranged, as far as possible, outside school hours. Pupils leaving the school during the day for any reason must first obtain a "blue slip" from their Form Teacher on presentation of a parental letter of explanation. This blue slip must be taken at the appointed time to the Main Office where the pupil must sign out in the 'Signing Out' book and sign back in when they return.
6. No games are to be played in the playground after school unless a teacher is in charge. Any pupil travelling to and from school by bicycle must dismount on arriving at the school gates and, on departure, must not use the cycle until he/she has left the school premises.
7. Pupils must not loiter, play games, or use the swings in Coronation Park or any of the Crosby parks before or after school.

CONCERN FOR OTHERS

1. Active support and respect for each other is a fundamental principle of the College community. Pupils must be open and welcoming and show concern for the welfare and happiness of others.

Any form of bullying is a serious offence and will be dealt with accordingly. Bullying is defined as persistent behaviour by an individual or group with the intention of verbally, physically, or emotionally harming another person or group.

2. Members of the College have a duty to protect others from bullying and must take action to prevent it, if necessary by bringing it to the attention of a prefect or member of staff.
3. The College is committed to equality of respect for all pupils in relation to gender, race, religious affiliations and social background. Exclusive behaviour, discriminatory comments or actions, or racist, sexist or homophobic behaviour of any sort, are forbidden.

ABSENCE

1. Absence from school should be notified by telephone or email on the day of absence. In addition, on the day of return, an explanatory note must be handed to the Form Teacher or School office.
2. Permission for foreseeable absences, including holidays, should be requested in writing, from the Principal, well in advance.
3. Pupils needing exemption from games on medical grounds must produce a note from a doctor or parent.
4. Holidays should not be arranged in term-time. In exceptional circumstances, e.g. if it is the only means of having a family holiday in a given year, if the absence is related to a family member's serious ill health, or a bereavement, or other such circumstances such absences may be authorised but only by the Principal in writing. In all other circumstances unauthorised absence will be recorded.

HOMEWORK

1. All written homework for pupils in Years 7-11 is to be handed in immediately on entering the Form Room in the morning and taken to a point designated by the subject teacher or by the Form Teacher or submitted through Firefly as requested by the subject teacher.

2. In the Sixth Form failure to hand in work is dealt with by the Tutor and the Head of Sixth Form according to the established procedure.

MEALS

School meals are compulsory for Years 7 + 8 unless medically excused.

YARDS

1. The yard at the side of Claremont House is reserved for Years 7 + 8.
2. Ball games are allowed only on the yards; however, balls must be of the lightweight type.
3. The grounds and playground in front of the Kindergarten are out of bounds.

CLASSROOMS

1. Classrooms, lockers, and desks are to be kept tidy. At the end of the school day all litter should be cleared. In the Sixth Form Common Room a duty rota is in place which sees Tutor Groups in charge of tidiness in this area for each particular week.
2. Pupils may not remain in classrooms or anywhere in the school building (except the Library) during break or the lunch interval. The exception is in wet weather, when pupils are to be seated quietly in their Form Rooms.
3. Pupils are not allowed to enter classrooms other than their own, unless directed by a member of staff; nor are they permitted to open another pupil's desk or locker without his/her permission.
4. When moving round the school pupils should keep to the right on corridors and stairs. When moving as a class or group they should walk quietly in single file. Pupils must show courtesy and make way for staff and visitors. Running in corridors is forbidden.

CARE OF PROPERTY and SCHOOL ENVIRONMENT

1. School property and the property of others is to be respected at all times. Any form of deliberate damage, including graffiti, is a serious offence which may render the pupil liable to fixed term or permanent exclusion.
2. Any pupil who engages in theft is liable to fixed-term or permanent exclusion.
3. Each pupil is responsible for his/her own possessions and should ensure that all clothing, footwear, bags, and belongings are clearly marked with his/her name.
4. Every pupil must have a bag in which to carry books and writing equipment to and from school. These should be left in the Form Room during the day, and must not be carried from lesson to lesson.

5. Text books and stationery provided by the school remain the property of the school and must be kept in good condition.
6. Pupils' property is not covered by school insurance and should be insured as part of home insurance.
7. Expensive items of property should not be brought to school. Money and personal valuables should be carried on the person or entrusted to a member of staff.
8. Damage to school property must be reported to the Form Teacher or subject teacher. The Business Director should be made aware of any such damage as soon as possible.
9. All lost property is to be taken to the School Office.
10. Litter is to be put in bins. Classrooms, desks, and lockers must be kept tidy.
11. Bags must not be left in corridors or outside the dining room
12. Chewing gum is not allowed on school premises.

TRAVEL TO AND FROM SCHOOL

1. School rules apply when travelling to and from school. Pupils must act in a manner which brings credit to them and the school, showing concern and respect for other travellers and all members of the public at all times.
2. Pupils must cross Liverpool Road by the 'Pelican' crossing.
3. Pupils travelling on school coaches must remain in their seats and follow instructions given by the bus escorts and the prefects.
4. Pupils who use school coaches must follow any instructions given by prefects or staff whilst waiting for coaches after school. Care must be taken not to block the footpaths.
5. The 'thumbing' of lifts home is forbidden as a dangerous practice. Running alongside or jumping on moving trains or buses is also forbidden.
6. Pupils being collected from after-school activities, fixtures, or practices should arrange for collection from the school yard and not wait on the road. They may wait in the entrance foyer.
7. Sixth Form students who wish to drive to and from school must first provide the Head of Sixth Form with written permission from parents and their confirmation that the pupil is holds a valid licence and certificate of insurance, sight (and copying by the school) of which may demand before giving permission. Students may not park in Everest Road. In order to indemnify the school, they must not give lifts to other pupils without providing the Head of Sixth Form with written permission from the parents of the passengers. Cars may not be used at lunchtime without a written request from parents.

PROHIBITED ARTICLES

1. No pupil is to bring into school stolen items, pornographic images, fireworks, air guns, knives, offensive weapons of any kind, or any article that the member of staff reasonably suspects has been, or is likely to be, used:
 - a. To commit an offence; or
 - b. To cause personal injury to any person, including the pupil themselves; or
 - c. To damage the property of any person, including the pupil themselves.

The school also identifies the following as prohibited items which may be searched for by authorised staff without consent if necessary; however, reasonable force will not be used under any circumstances.

2. Smoking is forbidden when on school premises, when travelling to and from school, and on all school activities, trips, and outings. Cigarettes, lighters, ecigs and matches must not be brought onto school premises. It is also forbidden at any point when in school uniform or immediately outside the premises.
3. All pupils are forbidden to bring, possess, or consume alcohol on school premises or when on the way to or from school. Breach of this rule will lead to immediate suspension. Pupils under the age of 18 are forbidden to bring, buy, or consume alcohol when on school activities, trips, or outings. The consumption of alcohol on such occasions by pupils over the age of 18 is subject to separate regulations set out in the Staff Handbook.
4. Any pupil involved in the illegal possession of drugs or in drug transactions, whether on school premises, during organised school activities, trips, or outings, or on the way to or from school is liable to permanent exclusion. Involvement with drugs outside the school context may also be construed as prejudicial to the interests and welfare of the school community and become grounds for permanent exclusion.

REWARDS SYSTEM

Section 1

REWARDS FOR ACADEMIC AND EXTRA CURRICULAR ENDEAVOUR

REWARDS:

We firmly believe in rewarding achievement and recognising effort in all aspects of school life. To promote this philosophy, there is a Rewards System whereby any student distinguishing him or herself by making noteworthy effort in academic work, attitude, behaviour or out-of-school activities will receive a merit, distinction or commendation.

1. Achievement points are awarded for impressive work, homework, effort and behaviour and are logged and SIMS and recorded on Firefly.

2. PARTICIPATION CERTIFICATES

These are given to pupils in years 7 to 10 who have shown commitment to a specific activity in College, either sporting or cultural.

3. COLOURS

- a) Merit Awards – These are given to pupils in Year 11 who have made a consistent contribution to a specific College activity for a minimum of two years, including Years 10 and 11.
- b) Half Colours – these are given to students who have made a consistent contribution to a specific College activity
 - Up to and including the Lower Sixth, with a view to encouraging further contribution in the Upper Sixth
 - Throughout the Sixth Form
 - In very exceptional cases they may be given to pupils of outstanding ability in Year 11 (e.g. U16, U17 or representative honours) who have shown exceptional dedication and leadership in a specific activity.
- c) Full Colours – these are given to students in the Upper Sixth who have made an outstanding contribution to a specific College activity throughout the Sixth Form.

4. Prizes on Prize Day

5. Outstanding Exam Results GCSE – Entry to Sixth Form and recognition at Prize Day *

6. Good Exam Results – Entry to Sixth Form*

7. Good Exam Results A-Level - Entry to Good University

i. Career

ii. *Entry to the sixth form is at the school's absolute discretion and the school may, despite academic excellence refuse admission where e.g. the pupil's presence is not conducive to the general good of the school or to other pupils, the candidate has Special Educational Needs which the sixth form is not, with reasonable adjustments, able to meet or for any other reason which the Principal notifies the pupil and parents of in writing.
